THE ARTS

BASIC WATERCOLOR PAINTING – NEW!

In this class, students with a broad range of experience in watercolor will discover the magic of playing and exploring as they get comfortable with watercolor fundamentals from artist and retired CSI Art Professor Mike Youngman. You will learn how to choose the best watercolor paints and brushes for you, why texture and weight of watercolor paper are important, and how to prevent your paper from warping as you paint. Learn to see like an artist, and discover the value of light and shadow to add drama to your paintings! Topics covered will include blending and mixing colors, papers, brush technique, composition, drawing skills, controlling the transparency of the paint, pulling and dipping, washes (flat, gradated, and variegated), wet-on-dry, wet-on-wet, lifting out, masking, texturing, wax resist, line & wash, & more. You will purchase your own supplies after the first class.

ACRYLIC POUR PAINTING – NEW!

Have you always wanted to try your hand at painting? Acrylic pour painting is the latest artistic trend that requires no previous experience or training. Acrylic pour techniques allow anyone, at any skill level, to make beautiful, colorful, abstract paintings--an experience that is a wonderful creative outlet and a chance to spend a few hours relaxing. CSI Theater Instructor Shane Brown will teach and demonstrate a variety of techniques that can be easily and cheaply replicated at home. During the class, students will create three separate acrylic pour paintings. Price of the class includes a set of acrylic paints and three canvases, which students will keep to continue creating at home. Brown received his training in painting techniques at the Ashland Center for Theater Arts at Southern Oregon university, and has decades of experience painting scenery to his instruction.

CHUNKY WEAVE BLANKET – NEW!

Chunky weaved blankets are the stuff dreams are made of. They're cuddly, they're comfy, and they add some softness and character to your space when you fold them over your couch or let them drape loosely from a chair. Come join us in learning how to make these blankets that are plush, unbelievably soft and cozy. Anyone can do it! Each student needs to bring 4 skeins for lap blanket, 5-6 skeins for larger blanket of chunky yarn in your favorite color.

ABUNDANT YOGA – NEW!

Do you have the idea that yoga is not for you because you live in an abundant, bountiful body? Wrong! Yoga is for everybody. Every. Body. It can be hard to walk into a class and be worried if you can keep up...if everyone there is smaller than you... if it will be too hard...if tiny little stick people will give you the side eye while putting their legs over their heads... if your breathing will be too loud... Nothing could be further from the truth - Yoga is for you, too! Abundant Yoga is a workshop for beginning or experienced yogis who may have a larger body. This workshop will help you prepare for any yoga class by learning how to adapt and vary any yoga pose for your own beautiful body. We'll learn yoga etiquette, a little history, chakra lore, and how to decipher yoga class descriptions to make sure a class is for you. Every week we will move and breathe.

THE ROLL MODEL METHOD – NEW!

The Roll Model Method is a system of releasing tight fascia and muscles in the body using two therapy balls. Rolling can occur on a mat on the floor, on a chair, or against a wall. Rolling can help relieve aches and pains, enhance breathing, increase mobility and energy, reduce stress, and improve posture and athletic performance. When do you want to roll? When you ache, before exercise, after exercise, when you want to relax, or when traveling. Instructor Amy Toft is certified in this method and will help you find ways to work with your own body. Workshop participants will receive a printed handout of rolling techniques and two therapy balls. This isn't yoga, it's self-massage that anyone with a body can do. Please bring a yoga mat if you have one.

GRANT WRITING 101: FINDING, WRITING, & WINNING THE FUNDING YOU NEED

The one day, three-hour course is focused on enhancing the skill set of both beginning and experienced grant writers. We will cover finding and preparing to write a winning grant proposal, writing grant proposals that reviewers want to fund, and knowing what to do before and after your proposal is funded. Attendees will walk away with answers to questions like these: "Where can I find money for myself, my company, or my organization?", "How does the grant process really work?", and "What can grant money be used for and what are the grant funders really looking for?". Additionally, a significant portion of the time will be available for attendees to ask and receive answers to questions that are specific to them, their organizations, and their funding needs. Instructors Justin Vipperman and Emily English bring an extensive history of more than 24 years' experience working with grants, government and public agencies, educational institutions, and non-profit organizations.

GRANT WRITING 102: FINDING, WRITING, & WINNING THE FUNDING YOU NEED – NEW!

Grant Writing 102 is based upon the principles and instruction included in the Grant Writing 101 course. Participants with more experience writing grants will have an opportunity to receive detailed critical feedback as they develop a proposal. A central goal of the course is to develop clear Specific Aims Page (which supplies additional background information) as the heart of the grant, which attendees will submit prior to class; this will be used for discussion, critique and suggestions from your instructors and classmates. Typically, a project will go through several cycles before moving on to writing the rest of the proposal. A participant may aim to fully develop a proposal and submit it at the end of the workshop, or may choose to develop a proposal over several workshops. Participants are encouraged to use the workshop to prepare revisions of previously reviewed grants, competitive renewals of previously funded grants, as well as new proposals.

SPRING 2022 BIRDWATCHING WORKSHOP SERIES – NEW!

Improve your birding skills — or get started in birdwatching with some friendly, expert help! Prairie Falcon Audubon is offering a series of stand-alone workshops for all levels of birding experience. Classroom sessions take place in Shields 201. Take one or more or take them all! $25 each or $80 for all four.

BIRDWATCHING 101

This introductory workshop will teach you about the birds that can be observed around the Magic Valley. Instructors from the local Audubon Chapter will familiarize you with the tools of the trade — binoculars, field guides, scopes, and the best local places to watch birds. In the Thursday evening classroom session, you will be introduced to different kinds of birds. You will learn about the observation skills necessary to identify a bird by size and shape, color patterns, behavior, and habitat. Then on the following Saturday, we'll head to some local birding hotspots to practice what we learned in class. No prior birding experience required. Note: You will need to bring your own or borrowed binoculars to the classroom session and to the Saturday field trip.

Feb 24 & 26 • Th 7-9 p.m. & S 8-12 p.m.

GREATER SAGE-GROUSE

Description: Greater Sage-Grouse are known for their unique and exciting display behaviors during the breeding season. In this workshop you will get to see male sage-grouse in action on a lek south of Twin Falls and learn about their habitat requirements, behavior, diet, migration patterns, and conservation status. Note: You will need to bring your own or borrowed binoculars to the classroom session and to the Saturday field trip. Depending upon road conditions, only four-wheel drive or high clearance vehicles will be able to drive to the lek. See EARLY start time above!

Mar 24 & 26 • Th 7-9 p.m. & S 4-11 a.m.

VERY BEGINNING BIRD PHOTOGRAPHY

Description: Bird photography is not easy. In fact, it can be downright frustrating. Birds are fast and often give us just short glimpses as they flit about in shrubbery. And the closer you get, the higher the probability of the bird flying away. In this workshop you will learn how to improve your chances of getting good bird photographs. You will learn about birding ethics, some birdwatching skills that will help you find the birds (where and when), tips about how to use your camera to get good shots, and how photography can improve your bird identification skills. Note: You will need to bring your own binoculars and camera to the classroom session and to the Saturday field trip.

Apr 21 & 23 • Th 7-9 p.m. & S 8-12 p.m.

IDAHO'S ENDEMIC CASSIA CROSSBILL

Description: Formally recognized as a species in 2017, the endemic Cassia Crossbill is America's newest bird species and found only in our very own South Hills! In this workshop you will get to see crossbills feeding on lodgepole pinecones in the South Hills and learn about their remarkable evolutionary history, life history, distribution, conservation status, and threats to their very existence. Note: You will need to bring your own binoculars to the classroom session and binoculars and lunch to the Saturday field trip.

May 26 & 28 • Th 7-9 p.m. & S 10-2 p.m.

RETIRE WITH CONFIDENCE

Retirement is glowing on the horizon. Look closely and what do you see - goals, dreams, a certain lifestyle? You've worked hard at your careers. You've saved, perhaps through your business, real estate, and/or investments in a 401(k) or IRA. You've anticipated that Social Security and maybe a pension will pay a portion of your way in retirement. You feel like you're on the right track... but what now? If you were to retire tomorrow, how would you use your assets to begin living in retirement? Do you have enough to fund your entire retirement? How and when should you file for Social Security and Medicare? Do your retirement goals include leaving a legacy? Now is the time to address these and other questions as you lay down your plan for living in retirement. In this class we will explore topics such as how to create your retirement plan, Social Security, pension options, income investing, annuities, other income generating assets and budgeting for the retiree, investing in retirement, a plan for health care, tax strategies for retirement, and estate planning. Instructor Brian J Scott, CRPC®, a Magic Valley native, is the owner and founder of Elevánt Wealth and has built a successful practice focused on helping his clients confidently transition into retirement through his unique passion and process for comprehensive and collaborative financial planning.

SCRATCHBOARD DRAWING

Come join our class and explore this unique art medium. Scratchboard is done using a specially prepared board consisting of Black India Ink covering a layer of white paint underneath the ink. The artist actually "scratches" out the previously drawn image using a sharp needle-like instrument. Thus, the drawing is produced using a series of carefully scratched lines. Being able to execute a drawing using this method produces an eye-popping black and white image suitable for framing. You will find learning this medium is both challenging and rewarding.
