COLLEGE FOR KIDS RULES AND GUIDELINES:

Permissions: By signing this form, you give the above minor permission to participate in the CSI Community Education Center's (CED) College for Kids program and accept full responsibility for delivering the student to the class at the appointed hour and for picking up the student at the conclusion of each session. Arriving no earlier than 15 minutes before the class start and no later than 15 minutes after the conclusion.

Additionally if your child becomes ill or hurt, you authorize CSI CED to seek provide first aid or seek medical treatment as deemed necessary. As the undersigned, you agree to hold the College of Southern Idaho and any officer or employees thereof harmless from any claim to the above named minor arising out of or in any way connected with CSI CED College for Kids program.

Photography: The undersigned agrees to permit photographs to be taken of this student enrolled in the CSI CED College for Kids program to be used for future promotional purposes.

Cancellation Policy: CSI CED classes are held based on the number of students enrolled and students are required to make a payment at the time of registration. The decision to cancel a class, prior to its beginning, is based on the number of persons pre-registered and paid. Students will be notified 24 hours prior to the first session if a class is cancelled.

Drop Policy: If you are unable to attend, please call the campus or local center at the number listed below to drop your child from the class. Students will be charged for all classes they have registered for unless they drop the class 72 hours prior to the first class session. No refunds will be given on or after the start date of class. If there is a supply fee and the student does not attend or drop the course, you will be billed for the fee.

Blaine County Center (208) 788-2033 • Jerome Center (208) 324-5101

Behavior Guidelines: Proper standards of conduct are necessary to protect the health, safety, and enjoyment of all College for Kids participants. Behavior that might interfere with the educational process is not acceptable. Students will be respectful to other students and staff. Students will be careful with college equipment and property, and the property of other students. Parents will be contacted if their child is involved in any unacceptable situations during class. Appropriate college personnel reserves the right, at any time, to exclude a child from activities due to failure or inability to follow as directed any rules and/or policies for participants and parents will be notified to pick up their child. No refund of tuition or registration fees will be made if child is requested to be picked up.

CSI Community Education is committed to the idea that each child should have a positive and enjoyable experience in our College for Kid's classes and camps. Please notify us of individual needs your child might have, such as food allergies, upon registration so all participants can thrive in this fun learning experience.

Computer Use: Certain classes may use the internet as part of their curriculum developed by the instructor. With this educational opportunity comes responsibility, to be shared by the participant, parent/guardian, and the college staff. Students will only use the software that pertains to their class. They may only use the internet when the instructor gives them permission. Students shall not give out personal information while online and should tell the instructor immediately if they encounter information that is inappropriate or makes them uncomfortable. Parents will be contacted if their child is involved in any unacceptable situations while using the computer.
